

PRIVACY POLICY

(ex art. 13 of the European Regulation 679/2016)

In compliance with the art. 13 of the European Regulation n. 679 of 2016 (hereinafter, the "Privacy Regulation") and of Legislative Decree June 30, 2003, n. 196, as amended by Legislative Decree 10 August 2018, n. 101 (hereinafter, the "Privacy Code") where still applicable, we wish to inform you that, in order to achieve the purposes indicated in the abovementioned release, the SEMM Foundation - European School of Molecular Medicine collects and processes personal data concerning you (hereinafter referred to as the "Data Subject").

1. Data Controller, Data Processors and Data Protection Officer.

The data controller is the SEMM Foundation - European School of Molecular Medicine (hereinafter, the "Owner" or the "Foundation") based in Via Adamello n. 16, (20139) Milan, VAT number 03448300966, telephone +39.02.57489806, email info[AT]semm.it

The updated list of data processors, where designated, can be provided upon request by the Data Subject.

In the event that one or more Data Protection Officers are appointed (pursuant to Article 37 of the Privacy Regulation), their identification data will be disclosed by publication of the same, supplementing this information.

2. Purposes and methods of processing.

The personal data of the Data Subject are processed within the institutional activity of the Foundation for the pursuit of the following purposes:

- (i) to make video recordings of the image and voice, as well as the publication of the name of the Data Subject, as well as to use the footage and images for the purposes better described in the release;
- (ii) to fulfill or to demand the fulfillment of specific contractual and legislative obligations or to perform specific tasks provided for by laws, community rules or regulations;
- (iii) to assert or defend a right, even by a third party, in a court of law, as well as in administrative or arbitration and conciliation procedures in the cases provided for by law and by EU legislation.

In relation to the aforementioned purposes, the processing of personal data takes place by specifically designated, authorized and trained individuals pursuant to Article 2-quaterdecies of the Privacy Code and Article 29 of the Privacy Regulation, as well as through external parties, who can assume the status of independent Data Controllers or be designated in writing as Data Processors; in any case, the processing will be carried out using manual, computerized and telematic tools, with logic strictly related to the purposes and in any case in order to guarantee the confidentiality and security of personal data and in full and absolute compliance with the legislation in force.

3. Mandatory or optional nature of data provision, consequences of a possible refusal and legal basis of the processing.

With reference to the aforementioned purposes, the conferment of the personal data of the Data Subject is optional, but in its absence it would be impossible to carry out video recordings of image and voice, as well as the publication of the name.

Therefore, as regards the purpose referred to in point (i) of the previous paragraph 2, the legal basis of the processing is the consent of the Data Subject (pursuant to Article 6, paragraph 1, letter a) of the Privacy Regulation); once the consent has been expressed for the purpose referred to in point (i) of the previous paragraph 2, concerning the subsequent purposes referred to in points (ii) and (iii), the legal basis of the processing is the fulfillment of legal obligations to which the Data Controller is subject (pursuant to Article 6, paragraph 1, letter c) of the Privacy Regulation).

4. To whom and in what context we can transmit the personal data of the Data Subject.

In relation to the purposes of the processing indicated above, and within the limits strictly pertinent to the same, the video recordings of the image and the voice of the Data Subject, as well as the name, may be communicated to third parties, as well as disseminated or published.

Furthermore, the other personal data of the Data Subject will be or may be communicated, in Italy, or in any case within or outside the EU, to the following subjects:

- (i) to Public Authorities to fulfill legal obligations;
- (ii) to the external structures and / or companies of which the Foundation avails itself, responsible for carrying out related activities, instrumental or consequent to the purposes of the release;
- (iii) to external consultants, if not designated in writing as Data processors.

The subjects indicated above, to which the personal data of the Data Subject will or may be communicated (as not designated in writing as Data processors), will process personal data as Data Controllers in accordance with the Privacy Regulation, in full autonomy, being unrelated to the original treatment performed by the Foundation.

A detailed and constantly updated list of these subjects, with the indication of their respective offices, is always available at the registered office of the Foundation.

The personal data of the Data Subject other than the video recordings of the image and the voice, as well as the publication of the name, will not be disseminated.

5. Rights of the Data Subject.

Article 15 and following of the Privacy Regulation give the Data Subject the right to obtain:

- the confirmation of the existence of their personal data, even if not yet registered, and communication of the same in an intelligible form;
- the indication of the origin of the personal data, of the purposes and methods of processing and of the logic applied in case of processing with the aid of electronic instruments;
- the updating, rectification, integration, cancellation, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of data processed in violation of the law - including those for which conservation is not necessary in relation to the purposes for which the data is collected or subsequently processed -, the attestation that these operations have been brought to the attention, even with regard to their content, of those to whom the data have been communicated or disseminated, except in the case where such fulfillment proves impossible or involves a manifestly disproportionate use of means with respect to the protected right.

The Data Subject also has the right:

- to revoke the consent given for the processing of personal data at any time (without prejudice to the lawfulness of the processing based on the consent given before the revocation);
- to object, in whole or in part, for legitimate reasons, to the processing of his/her personal data, even where pertinent to collection purposes;
- to object, in whole or in part, to the processing of his/her personal data for the purpose of sending advertising and direct marketing materials, or for carrying out market research or business communications;

- to propose a claim to the Guarantor for the protection of personal data in the cases provided for by the Privacy Regulation.

To exercise the rights pursuant to articles 15 et seq. of the Privacy Regulation, the Data Subject, in the manner established by art. 12 of the Privacy Regulation and within the limits established by art. 2-undecies of the Privacy Code, can contact the Foundation, as Data Controller, at the addresses indicated above.

6. Safety measures.

The personal data of the Data Subject are treated in compliance with the applicable law and using adequate security measures, in compliance with the legislation in force also pursuant to the articles 5 and 32 of the Privacy Regulation.

In this regard, we confirm the adoption of appropriate security measures to prevent, amongst other things, unauthorised access, theft, disclosure, modification or destruction of the data of the Data Subject.

7. Duration.

The data of the Data Subject other than those published will be kept by the Foundation for the period of time strictly necessary to ensure the correct pursuit of the purposes of the release, without prejudice to the need for conservation for a longer period in compliance with current legislation.
